

Confident Stortford

WYCOMBE WANDERERS make one of their longest journeys of the season tomorrow (Saturday) when they travel to Bishop's Stortford in the Rothmans Isthmian League. And waiting to greet them are a Stortford side full of confidence following two fine displays last week.

Last Saturday, Stortford did well to take a point away from Leatherhead after a 1-1 draw and then on Tuesday evening they recorded a prestige 1-0 triumph over their arch rivals Hitchin Town — the side that beat Wanderers 2-0 on Saturday. Kenny Gaine scored the deciding goal at Topfield.

Stortford have already taken a point from Wycombe this season in their 1-1 draw at Loakes Park on September 13. But it should be stated that the Blues tried several experiments in that game. Tony Horseman put Wanderers ahead after 23 minutes with Peter Twigg equalising in the 59th.

Since that game Stortford have drawn and lost against Ilford, beaten Slough, lost at Hayes and lost at home to Enfield. But those two recent results at Leatherhead and Hitchin have installed new confidence into the side.
